Nell Walker

ROCK HILL, S.C. - Winthrop University's College of Business Institute of Management is now taking registration for a nine-month certificate in non-profit management program, beginning on March 18.

The 56-hour program is intended for executive directors, program managers, department managers and students wanting to work in non-profit management. Organizers said the program will help executives upgrade their skills in areas of governance, human resources management, business ethics and diversity, accounting and finance, program effectiveness, marketing and public relations, legal basics, sustainability and volunteer management.

Instructors are professionals in the field of non-profit management, consultants specializing in non-profit management and Winthrop business administration faculty members. Space is limited to the first 25 participants.

Successful participants in the program will receive a certificate of completion from the Winthrop University Institute of Management.

Classes will alternate between the campuses of Winthrop University and the University of South Carolina-Lancaster. Class sessions will be held on selective Wednesdays between March 18 and Oct. 15. Class times vary based on content.

The program cost is $380 for each participant. Non-profit organizations are encouraged to contact Nell Walker of Winthrop's College of Business Administration at 803/323-2681 or e-mail walkern@winthrop.edu.
